UTHealth Faculty & Student Governance

Faculty Role in Governance includes, but not limited to:

Academic policies and welfare Admission and graduation requirements Approval of degree candidates Curriculum and academic program matter Student life in relation to educational and professional processes Honors and scholastic performance Research opportunities and initiatives Faculty appointment, promotion, and tenure Faculty development Review of HOOP policies and procedures Other institutional concerns impacting faculty Student Role in Governance includes, but not limited to:

Admission policy review Academic evaluation Curriculum and academic program review Academic environment and infrastructure Student services Tuition and fees Extracurricular activities Student regulations and discipline Student health insurance Review of HOOP policies and procedures Other institutional concerns impacting students